Stars Are Made Not Born...

Hello from the hub of Christmas activity! It has been lovely to see so many parents, carers, grandparents and families coming to numerous musical highlights of the past week. We have taken over St Catherine's Church and the set up camp in Rosen Hall, all to bring a bit of festive joy to the children and community. The children have been amazing, showing the relevance of the 3 school rules to virtually all situations: being ready for performance, remaining respectful at all times and moving between venues and school safely. The shows have been lovely, with a variety of seasonal songs and every concert has been very well attended. The children sang beautifully, warming even the Scroogiest of hearts out there! One of the joys of seeing the children perform is seeing just how confident they are - some stars were definitely shining brightly up on that stage. We wanted to say thanks to several key parties - Daisy Moon for organising and leading the whole season of performances, St Catherine's church for hosting the larger shows and to you, the parents and carers, for showing up in force and being such an amazing audience. We know our early phase (nursery - year 1) are busy getting ready for their turn in the spotlight next week.

Winter Fair/Xmas trees

The PTA are working around the clock to ensure that next weekend's Winter Fair will be one to remember. Please keep the donations (general and class raffle) coming.

The lovely people at Nunhead Gardener are continuing their support - please show them the voucher below on your phone to earn the school a 10% donation against the cost of your tree.

EWrap Bookings Update

We will be opening the EWrap bookings for next term, next week. We will also open the booking for Spring Half Term playscheme (12th - 16th Feb) before the end of this term. Keep 'em peeled for further notifications.

From the Office Team

We know its dark and cold in the mornings, but we have noticed quite a few people missing the gates, which all shut @9:00am. A polite reminder to be here before they close!!
