A plant needs water because if you don't your plant is going to dry out and become weak.

A plant needs the right temperature to germinate properly.

Don't lock your plant into a cupboard because it will stretch to find light and get thinner.

What do plants need to grow? 07.05.24

We have learned that plants need three conditions to grow and be healthy. These are:

1. water
2. Light
3. The right temperature

We are going to conduct an experiment. We will plant five seeds with different conditions and see what happens. Can you predict which seeds will grow the best?

Growing conditions How the seed will be planted		Prediction How the seed will grow
			The seed will grow normally.
			The seed plant will dry out and get weak.
			The plant will stretch to find light and will get thin.
			The seed won't germinate properly.

Malala's cherished school years

As a teenager Malala loved very hard every day & so she could become become a one of the top students, Malala loved only one thing more than school and that was her family. Sadly a group of men called
 The Taliban announced girls could not go to school or work.
 Malala's friends were constantly moving to different countries.
 The Taliban believed that girls weren't smart enough to go to school and they should be cooking and cleaning instead. Malala's heart broken to hear this news. She knew someone had to speak out.
 Why not her. She set to work writing endless speeches but soon her threats were being given out and she did not feel safe.

Loch Ness monster

Long long ago in a small ^{village} a boy called Max longed to go to swimming in the Loch Ness, but nobody would let him because of the legend of the Loch Ness Monster. On the 1st of April, a big bully pushed him into the Loch Ness. * Down, down, down. Darker, darker, darker. A light was ahead. * Fink completely obscured his vision.

Ouch! Max's leg packed a sharp wooden plank. 'That's not normal', he thought. It was an old, ~~rotten~~ rotten boat. Max yanked at the boat; it came out easily. He swam up to the surface and got onto the boat. It creaked ^{deafeningly} ~~deafeningly~~. For a few hours Max rowed. He was nearly to the shore when a huge serpent-like ~~creature~~ ^{creature} surged out of the water. It was slimy and scaly. Its tail hit the boat and the small boat sank instantly and so did Max. Flailing about in fear for his life. "Muummmmmmyyy", he shouted. "Come save me".

Flick, all of a sudden Max was on the ... Loch Ness Monster? "You saved me, ~~how~~ ^{how} ~~thank~~ ^{thank} you" Max stammered. "Simply by telling everyone that I'm kind." replied a booming voice. Max was lost for words. He rode back to shore and thanked the Loch Ness "Monster" once more. He told all the grown ups about this.

They attacked the Loch Ness monster with nets and stones and lumps of metal. "Stop! Stop!" Max shouted. "He saved me!" At that point the adults realised how wrong they were. From that moment on Max put a sign saying "Be nice to Loch Ness Monster".

Malala

She Dreams of Her Future

When Malala was a little girl, she watched a TV show where a boy had a magic pencil. He always used it to help others. She wanted a magic pencil to make the world a better place for her and for others. She wanted to put a lock on her door so her brothers couldn't annoy her. She wanted to know a dress for her mum so ^{her mum} she could be happy. She wanted to know about for her brothers so they would play football. Malala would erase some laws so girls could be educated; she would erase poverty so the world was equal and she would also erase war so people were safer.
