

WW/J

This piece represents the large amount of plastic in our world. The fish eat the plastic, they become polluted, and at the end of eating that polluted fish, they die. I think we should all work together to stop polluting and save our fish.

WW/J by David and Lin

