16.1.25 The Great Fire of London

1am, 2nd September 1666

2nd September 1666

3rd September 1666

3rd September 1666

The fire started at a bakery on Pudding Lane at 1am. They woke up the Lord Mayor to tell him. But he went back to sleep. The fire spread fast because the houses were made of wood. And it was very windy and it had been a hot summer. People used leather buckets and water squirts to put out the fire. And finally the Lord Mayor said they could put out the fire with the fire hooks to make a fire break. So they started to pull down houses. But the fire was just too fast. And it took a very long time to take down a whole house. Some people saved their children's lives.

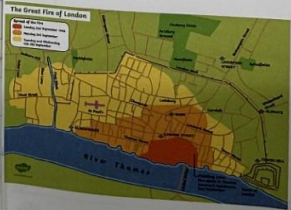

4th September 1666

5th September 1666

6th September 1666

They used gunpowder to destroy the houses with the gun powder and even the Lord Mayor and the King helped put out the fire. On the 5th of September everything slowed down but almost every home was ruined. So they rebuilt London but this time it was a better London. When the streets were all dirty every thing was smelly. First the fire spread half way and then almost then it spread a bit more and then it spread though the whole of London. Only six people died.

PP4- sneeze attack

the 10/1/25

Starting at the straw door on straw floor, the wolf stepped inside. Although the room was deserted, the wolf <sup>could</sup> tell by steering hot chocolate that the residents must be be some where close by. He ~~sneezed~~ sneezed. atishoo! huff! snuff! things fell. crash! crash! clang! The wolf looked around in disturb at the damage, but all of a sudden, the wolf suddenly ~~felt~~ felt another tickle in his nostrils. The wolf sneezed a noisy ~~sneeze~~ sneeze. He sneezed a noisier sneeze. He sneezed the noisiest sneeze. It was as loud as a herd of elephants.
