Edmund Waller WEEKLY NEWSLETTER

7th March 2025

What a Waller Week...

We are coming to the end of what has been a truly hectic week, as we went all in on making yesterday's World Book Day. We had so much fun that we have decided one measly day is not enough to celebrate all things book'ish!

We have had some incredible performance poetry from Kat Francois, Eddie and his travelling book fair, author workshops and visits from Ramya Julian, as well as poet (and Edmund Waller parent) Clare Pollard.

Yesterday, the whole school went bananas for a Bedtime Story, with the majority of children coming to school in their pyjamas and many of them bringing along a cuddly friend to keep them company. A HUGE thanks to Ms Jones and Ms Murtagh for their incredible efforts in organising such an inspiring week.

The whole week will culminate, this afternoon, with the Edmund Waller PTA's Book Sale. As well as some excellent quality pre-loved books, they will also be selling their rather fabulous 'Wonky Bars™'. In a scene reminiscent of a very well know children's book, any chocolate bar with a golden ticket will win a prize - the prizes range from bonus breaktimes and treats for the winner's whole class to the honour of being able to choose the music for the children to walk in to for a Monday assembly. You can get your books, your Wonky Bars™ and refreshments today after school. Get there and show your support for the fab PTA :)

EWRAP EASTER

Booking is now open for The mighty EWrap Easter Playscheme. We will be open for the entire Easter holiday, with a jam packed schedule of visits and activities. Book before the 21st March to guarantee a place and avoid the price rise, which kicks in from the 22nd. Bookings before this date are a steal @£30 per day - all visits and activities are included in this price! Get booking!

Pottery Workshops

Running alongside the Easter Playscheme are Ms Lepere's fantastic pottery workshops. These take place on the school site and there are a variety of booking options. You'd be potty to miss it!

Click on the 'Lepere logo' (to the left) to see all the booking options and find out more.
