In middle of the sea <sup>is</sup> was a house, its walls ~~rise~~ wet, broad walls rise up seeming to never end. On the roof is a group of pelicans.
 perched on These wings are sprinkled with dust and ~~brown~~ scraped with brown. The house is perched on a rocky island. Some say its haunted, others say its just a random house but for the pelicans its its much more.
 Its a place full of wonder, mysteries and fun.

The greater the denominator, the smaller the part, because the whole has been divided into more / fewer equal parts.

Would you rather eat three quarters of a pizza, or three hundredths of a pizza? Why? ✓

If these are slices of pizza, which would you rather have? Why? ✓

$\frac{3}{4}$  because  $\frac{3}{12}$  is smaller than  $\frac{3}{4}$  ✓

three quarters because 5 hundredths would look like this and 3 quarters is 3/4

1. Did you face any problems?
How did you overcome them?

2. How could it be improved?
(taste, texture, appearance)

1. I liked the taste of the <sup>potatoes</sup> potatoes and the bravas sauce. The potatoes were smoky and slightly sweet because we added smoked paprika. The sauce was sweet and slightly sour because we added bay leaves, paprika, oregano and chilly powder.

2. The texture of the potatoes was crispy on the outside <sup>es</sup> but and soft and smooth on the inside. The bravas was smooth with some lumps.

3. Our dish looked appealing but we could have used <sup>colour to it</sup> basil to <sup>add color</sup> garnish it.

4. we used the et Bridge grip to dice the potatoes and we mixed the sauce. And I was hygienic by washing my hands with soap and water.

Challenge

1. Did you face any problems?
How did you overcome them?

2. How could it be improved?
(taste, texture, appearance)

1. I liked the taste of them both because the <sup>crispy</sup> potato was sweet salty and spicy because we put lots of chilli flakes and chilli powder, and the bravas was sweet from the tomatoes, but it was a bit lumpy.

2. The texture of the <sup>potatoes</sup> were crispy on the inside and smooth and soft on the outside. But the ones that hadn't been boiled before were less crispy and harder on the inside. The bravas sauce was smooth with few lumps in it.

3. The appearance of our tapas dish looked delicious because the potatoes had been cooked for long enough and the bravas had been stirred nicely.

4. I used the bridge grip to chop the potatoes small into small cubes and the spoon to add chilli and to stir.

Challenge:

1. When we were <sup>chopping</sup> soaking the raw potatoes it was harder than the boiled potatoes.

2. To be improved we could add less paprika and a bit less salt.

Dear Brother,

It was really amazing to hear from you: it has made my day. Life here has been more exsusting, than last time we spoke. At work, my boss treats me like a homeless dog, all they said was: Clean desk. Tok Tok Tok. My life is horrible. I don't get any promotions. Tok tok tok.

Working in this big building has been terrible. Unfortaly, there have been no bathroom for poor me. I have to walk twelve blocks, Sometimes in the heavy rain I have worked for Seventeen years but no money, no refund. My boss don't ~~apporad~~ give me reasons. resores because ~~to~~ i'm not a human. I live in a small office wall-cramped conditions but co-workers and boss pretend ~~to know~~ not to know i lived there. I have to do all the work meanwhile ~~the~~ the co-workers and boss goes home. I couldn't even use the lift because i ~~couldn't~~ couldn't reach the call button. ~~Taking~~ Taking the stairs took lot of hours. Tok tok tok.

To make this worse, my boss harass me for not doing correct things. My body is covered with bruises, they are not smalls they are huge. If this is bad, then it's worse. My boss My boss is kind to everyone except me, he is aggressive. Sometimes my boss docked my pay. Working with ungrateful people ~~is~~ is hard. I'm tired of people being ~~disreep~~ disrespectful for me. Tok tok tok.
