In Tudor London there were people were living in homes with other people so that means when a person got ill you would probably get ill ~~as~~ because there was no medicine. When you are born there's a 3/10 ~~chance~~ chance you will survive because there wasn't medicine or water. For Entertainment they had encouters and fighting bears would fight dogs and people would come. ^{poor} Tudors would get holes in their house for ~~wooden~~ windows. Really ~~poor~~ Rich people could afford to glass windows.
