NO DISCRIMINATION

Taking Pride In What We Do

Welcome back to the final half term of the academic year. Not sure if its just me, but this year seems to have galloped by...

We kicked off the half term with an assembly to mark the beginning of the term and the beginning of Pride Month, which is marked across the world (or not..) during the month of June. We feel strongly that the children have a right to hear about the reasons behind Pride month and reflect on the prejudices that have existed historically and, sadly, still exist today. This is in keeping with not only the school's equality objectives but also comes under the Edmund Waller value of Humanity. The children were particularly fascinated by the world map, which shows the countries where Pride is celebrated openly and those where no official celebration takes place. You can see this map for yourself by following the link to the slides from Monday's assembly, here: Pride 25

Humanity

A culture of visible kindness where everyone is treated fairly and respectfully.

SHARING THOUGHTS FREELY

Also of interest are the links between Pride and the UN Convention of the Rights of the Child. Expect to hear more about these as we continue to embed these values and become a UN Rights Respecting School.

ACCESS TO INFORMATION

Goldsmiths Concert

Coming out of the blocks quickly, this half term starts with a bang. Today, despite the weather, we will be heading up to Goldsmiths Sports Field for our Sports Day. We are hoping the sheer power of optimism will change the weather. If this 'manifesting' let's us down (it won't) we will make a decision about coming back to school. We'll be back at Goldsmiths next week for the Summer Spectacular - Y2-Y6 Summer Concert. This takes place on Wednesday 11th June @6pm. There is a bar, so get there early and get yourself a drink and get ready to party. The link for tickets is via the banner above.
