Winding Down For Summer?

You must be joking! What a full on Week of Waller W'action. It has been non-stop, with so many highlights. On Wednesday, we welcomed, not only the cooler weather (have you ever been so happy to see it rain?!), but also Mr Howell (our KS2 music teacher) who brought a full brass band to play for the children. This was part of the Proms in the Playground project - thanks to Ms Moon & Mr Howell for putting this together.

Earlier in the week, Nursery and Reception took part in their own sports days. They loved it - we may even have a few future Olympians on our hands! A HUGE thanks to Ms Lepere for her organisational skills; to the families for coming along to support their children, with a special mention to all the Year 5 children who helped in such a mature and supportive manner.

Last night, spurred on by the irrepressible DJ Craig, Year 6 had a party in the playground! They had a great time, complete with foam party and games. All that and a lot of dancing too!

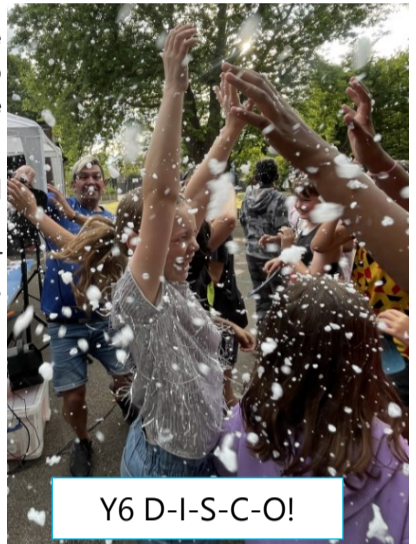

Today, we welcomed the new families for next year's Reception, as the children came in to meet their teacher and see their classroom for the first time. The children seemed incredibly confident and ready for a September start. We can't wait to welcome them all next (academic) year.

Just below this paragraph, you will see several expressions of pure joy - as Year 3, escape the city heat and head off for a day at the seaside. Jealous? You should be!

What can else can we cram in before the end of the year... Lots! Keep your eyes peeled for upcoming events and keep up if you can!

Going Potty For Summer

Yes, she's back! Ms Lepere, our Year 4 teacher and PE lead has a handy side-line in being a potter too! She has been running her own pottery workshops and is building quite a following out there across Telegraph Hill. She will be hosting a further series of workshops over the summer - click on this article, or on one of 'le Pears' below!

PTA Summer Fair

Individually, they might feel a little weary, but together they are a formidable, indefatigable force. The wonderful PTA are now in full Summer Fair mode! The fair will take place tomorrow between 12pm - 4pm. Get your tokens at the ready, this will be the last event you can use the blue tokens, so get in there and get rid of 'em! They also need volunteers - you can sign up by clicking this link:

Year 6 Bracelet

Getting their enterprising spirits warmed up were the Year 6 team: Juliette, Dora, Anna, Rose, Sofia, and Bianca (plus honourable mentions to Vinnie, his big sister, and their mum, Jo), who held their own bracelet stall at the PTA Disco. All materials were donated by parents, and the stall raised almost £250 (£248.50 to be precise) for the Year 6 funds. Following their success - every last item was sold - the girls plan to carry on crafting between now and this weekend's fair, ready to set up shop again. Profits will be for Year 6 things like yearbooks and discounts costs, and general PTA.
