The victors dashed like a fast incoming tsunami. They dashed like a crazy falling tree. Ariadne hopped for happiness and they she jumped for joy. The team sprinted across the beach to the harbour where their boat was waiting for them to arrive and get on board by hopping and jumping over the thick, churning, steep sides. Theseus' smile faded when Ariadne said "Remember my love, you promised to marry me if I helped you." Theseus was devastated and had forgotten all about her promise to him and his promise to her about if she helped him, he would marry Ariadne. When the boat was on the way to Athens, Theseus felt unhappy while on the other hand Ariadne was feeling quite pleased with herself that she had finally found the perfect person for her to marry.

18.3.26

As the sun came and went, Theseus sailed home. Theseus looked powerful to telling his <sup>Sather</sup> ~~father~~ all about his adventures in Crete. However he forgot to fly ~~black~~ weight sails as his <sup>Sather</sup> ~~father~~ said. The sails were black like a funes panther or a <sup>venames</sup> ~~venames~~ spider. As King Aegeneus stared out into the sea he spotted the black sails and concluded his son was dead.
