

Year 5

Home learning

Monday 29th March 2021

Topic for the summer term!

- ▶ As historians, we will study the Roman Invasion of Britain in 43AD. What was the impact of the Roman settlement?
- ▶ We will explore Roman homes (rich and poor!) and the life of Roman soldiers: designing costumes and choreographing a battle of the Romans and the Celts.

Click on the cartoon above for a link to a BBC Bitesize video about the Roman invasion.

Your tasks....

What do you already know about the Roman Invasion? Write your facts down (try to think of at least 5) and draw pictures to demonstrate your knowledge. You could turn it into a comic strip.

Write 5 questions you would like to find out about the Romans.

For example:

What food did the Romans eat most days?

Home learning during the holidays

- ▶ We have enjoyed learning the Anglo-Saxon story of the brave warrior Beowulf and completed writing tasks based on the text.

Your task: write a story in your own words about Grendel's mother seeking her revenge on Beowulf for killing her son in battle. You can do this 'cold' or read Michael Morpurgo's version of 'Beowulf' (click on picture for link).

- ▶ What might she look like?
- ▶ How does she communicate?
- ▶ What powers could she have?
